

Best Army MWR Catered Event

Fort Sill – Patriot Club

International Artillery Symposium 3

Nomination entailed a 4-day symposium hosting Middle Eastern International dignitaries and senior military leaders

Preparation

- Staff education on Middle East menus, customs and protocol
- Separate room with individual rugs for prayer needs

Catered events:

- Breakfast, lunch and meals daily
- Off-premise catering at Snow Hall, the Fort Sill Museum and the LO Ranch Rodeo
- Icebreaker with cigar-tasting

More Catered Events

- All-American lunch at Fort Sill's Historical Museum (Thick-n-juicy burgers, all-beef hot dogs, oreo brownies served on wooden tables... just like 125 years ago).
- Oklahoma Steak Dinner with Native American dancers and a renowned Native American flutist.
- Western Rodeo and dinner at the LO Ranch banquet hall...with a chuck wagon buffet.

Success Story

- “I have served in the Army for 28 years and I can say without reservation that the support our Patriot Club provided during the symposium has been the finest I have ever experienced.” (Command Sergeant Major Jeffery Powell)
- NIBD of $17,365 (28.9%)

Nominees

Executive Chef – Danny Mayberry

Assistant Chef – Evelyn Gilbert

Manager, Patriot Club – Tonya Phair

